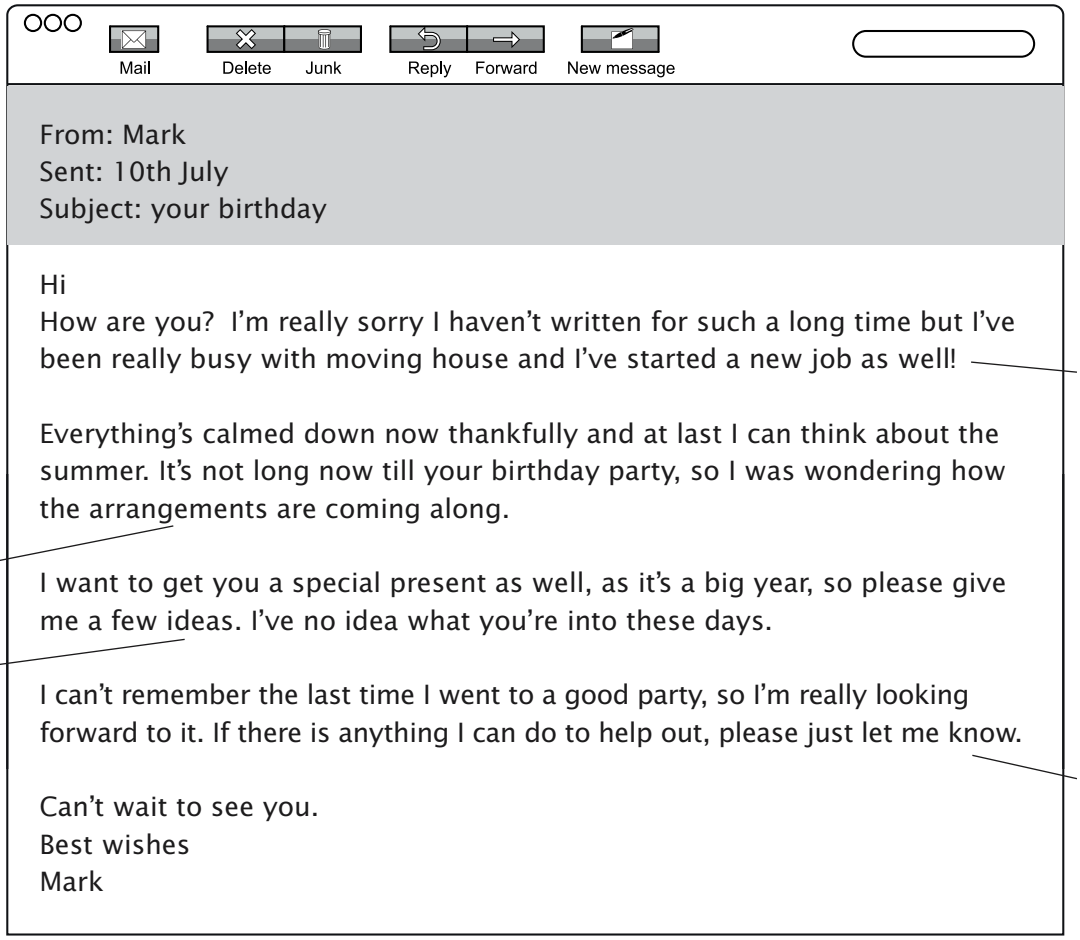
Achievement test 1 – Writing

Units 1–4

Write an answer to ONE of the questions below.

1 You have received an email from your friend Mark. Read Mark's email and the notes. Then write an email to Mark, using all the notes.

Write 120–150 words.



From: Mark
Sent: 10th July
Subject: your birthday

Hi
How are you? I'm really sorry I haven't written for such a long time but I've been really busy with moving house and I've started a new job as well!

respond and give some of your own personal news

Everything's calmed down now thankfully and at last I can think about the summer. It's not long now till your birthday party, so I was wondering how the arrangements are coming along.

explain what you've planned

I want to get you a special present as well, as it's a big year, so please give me a few ideas. I've no idea what you're into these days.

suggest a gift you'd like

I can't remember the last time I went to a good party, so I'm really looking forward to it. If there is anything I can do to help out, please just let me know.

yes, could you …

Can't wait to see you.
Best wishes
Mark

2 Your teacher has asked you to write a short story for an English-language magazine. The story must begin with the following words:

I knew that something was different as soon as I opened the door.

Write your story. Write 120–180 words.

/25

Photocopiable © Cambridge University Press 2011